

Course/Subject/Grade(s):		Planning Team:
Unit Guiding Question(s): What is creative and playful language? How can I use creative and playful language in a story?
Goals		This is what I need to know and do	This is what I must know & do	This is what I can know & do	This is what I could know & do	This is what I can try to know & do
Content: I know the elements of story		I know what a story is I know where to find them	I know that stories have problems and characters	I know that stories have setting and plot	I know that stories have theme	I know that stories can have a purpose
Curricular Competencies:	I can create stories and other texts to deepen awareness of self, family, and community	I can share an event from my life  I can share a story following a model	I can share a story connected to myself  I can share a story in one way (visual, oral, written)  I can share a story to entertain and engage an audience	I can share a story about an experience or my identity  I can share a story in another way  I can share a story that instructs an audience	I can share a story about a personal journey  I can share a story in any way  I can share a story that inspires an audience	I can share my story integrating many ways
	I can plan and create a variety of communication forms for different purposes and audiences	I can create for myself and my class community	I can plan and create in one way (visual, oral, written)  I can create for a small group audience	I can plan and create in two ways  I can create for another group	I can plan and create in any ways  I can create for a group I don't know	I can plan and create integrating many ways  I can create for a virtual audience
	I can communicate using sentences and most conventions of Canadian spelling, grammar, and punctuation	I can use pattern sentences  I can use capital letters	I can write sentences I can connect multiple sentences together  I can use Canadian spelling in my writing	I can write paragraphs  I can use punctuation in my writing	I can connect multiple paragraphs together  I can use grammar in my writing	I can create a thesis for my writing
	I can Develop and apply expanding word knowledge	I can use words in my story	I can take risks in my story and try new things	I can use descriptive words in my story	I can use more specific words to describe my story	I can use a thesaurus to develop words in my story